

Effective Job Coaching – Supporting People with Learning Disabilities in their workplace

National / Local Directive

Valuing Employment Now

Adult Social Care & Housing Priority

4, 6

Overview:

This interactive session is led by experienced job coaches from the Council's Supported Employment Team. Participants will explore what it means to job coach, how that differs from supporting people in other environments, and how this applies to the clients they currently support.

After Completing this Course You Will:

- Be able to describe Supported Employment and explain some of the jargon used
- Identify tasks and skills a job coach may need to support a client with at work
- Give examples of how support in the workplace may need to be different from support in other environments
- Have an awareness of the on-going development of clients at work, the eventual fading of job coaching and how to solve any problems that arise in the client's workplace

Who should attend

This is for anyone who supports (or wishes to support) a person with a learning disability in paid or voluntary employment.

When: Wednesday 9th November, 12:00 – 2:30, lunch is provided
